

Name: Filip De Ly

Style or titles: Professor of Law

Date of birth: July 13, 1959

Career highlights:

Cand.Iur. Catholic University Leuven (1979); Lic.Iur. Ghent University (1982); Dr.Iur. Ghent University (1989); LL.M. Harvard Law School (1983) Associate, Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton, Brussels (1983-1985); Assistant Professor. Faculty of Law, Ghent University (1983-1988); Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Utrecht University (1988-1992)

Current employment and relevant additional jobs:

Full Professor of Private International and Comparative Law, Erasmus School of Law, Erasmus University Rotterdam (1992-present)

On the TAMARA arbitrator list since 2006; experience in eight TAMARA/UNUM cases (up to April 2019)

Member Advisory Board, Netherlands Arbitration Institute; Member Arbitration Commission, International Chamber of Commerce; Member of the London Court of International Arbitration Company; Member of the Council of the Institute of World Business Law of the International Chamber of Commerce; Member of the Board of Trustees and of the Executive Committee of the Dubai International Arbitration Center; Member of the Editorial Board of a number of periodicals including the Dutch Tijdschrift voor Arbitrage; Chairman of the International Commercial Arbitration Committee of the International Law Association; Chairman of the Groupe de Travail Contrats Internationaux

Frequently retained as arbitrator in international commercial arbitrations as sole arbitrator, co-arbitrator or chairman of the arbitral tribunal. These arbitration proceedings were conducted as ad hoc arbitrations or under various institutional schemes. The subject matter of these arbitrations ranged from sales, construction and distribution contracts to joint ventures, energy projects and post-M&A disputes. He also has been involved in State Contract and foreign investment arbitrations.

Contact details:

Postal address: Johan Buziaulaan 33, NL - 3584 ZT Utrecht

Telephone: +31 30 251 11 32

E-mail: dely@law.eur.nl