

Name: Niek Peters

Style or titles: Prof. Dr

Date of birth: 29-08-1980

Career highlights:

Prof. Niek Peters specialises in (international) arbitration and ADR. He has been involved in a great number of arbitrations, institutional and ad hoc, both as counsel and arbitrator. He sat as chair, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator. As a young lawyer, Prof. Peters also acted as secretary to various arbitral tribunals.

Prof. Peters has much experience with disputes in the energy sector, the machine industry, international trade, as well as the financial and professional service sectors.

Prof. Peters started his career at Greenberg Traurig in 2004. Since then he inter alia worked for Hanotiau & van den Berg in Brussels. He also was a partner at Cleber and Simmons & Simmons. At the latter firm, he headed the Dutch commercial litigation and arbitration practice.

Since 2007 Prof. Peters has been teaching the course International Commercial Dispute Settlement Law at Groningen University. He obtained his PhD at this university in 2015. He was appointed full professor in 2019.

Current employment:

2019-present: Professor of International Commercial Arbitration at Groningen University

2023-present: Partner at Legaltree

Additional jobs:

- Arbitrator in national and international arbitrations (e.g. ICC, LCIA, NAI, UNUM, UNCITRAL, Ad Hoc)
- Board member Royal Netherlands Association of International Law
- Member ICC Commission on Arbitration & ADR
- Member of the editorial board of the Czech Yearbook of Arbitration

Contact details:

Postal address: Olympisch Stadion 24-28
1076 DE Amsterdam
The Netherlands

Telephone: +31(0)20 800 6367

Email: niek.peters@legaltree.nl